Monique is a Lawyer in our Dispute Resolution and Litigation team.

Monique completed her studies at Deakin University Geelong where she obtained a Bachelor of Laws (Distinction) and Bachelor of Arts (Distinction), with a double major in criminology and international relations. Throughout her studies, Monique worked as a paralegal in the Corporate and Commercial department of a large regional firm, gaining indispensable experience and knowledge.

Raised in rural Victoria, Monique has a strong connection to and a genuine passion for supporting rural and regional communities. This drives her commitment to providing assistance to clients, no matter where they are located.

In her practice, Monique is dedicated to helping her clients navigate the complexities of litigation with empathy and understanding. She understands that legal disputes can be challenging, and she strives to achieve the best possible outcomes for her clients.
